

So, who does the work? We partner with a variety of authorized contractors to assist us throughout the project. These authorized contractors help with everything from design, easement acquisition, to construction. Now we hold our contractors to the same standard as Dominion Energy employees, and all carry a Dominion Energy contractor badge. But at any time during your project, you can also call your Dominion Energy point of contact.